

NYS Ginseng Resources

American ginseng is a high-value agroforestry crop that can be grown in the right type of forest with ample patience on the part of the grower.

New York State General Resources

- CCE Columbia Greene Agroforestry Center- ccecolumbiagreene.org/natural-resources/agroforestry-resource-center
- Cornell Small Farms - smallfarms.cornell.edu/projects/agroforestry/
- Cornell's Forest Connect- blogs.cornell.edu/cceforestconnect/
- MyWoodlot - mywoodlot.com/

Web-based Ginseng Resources

- The Practical Guide to Growing Ginseng by Bob Beyfuss. A 65 page primer on growing ginseng in backyards or woodlots hdl.handle.net/1813/54771
- Getting Started Right for Successful Ginseng Production is a great article that outlines a process of trialing potential sites for production before committing. smallfarms.cornell.edu/2015/10/ginseng-production/
- Learn to grow ginseng through this video series - youtube.com/playlist?list=PL7w1Cs3Ysjxfp-V_YOIu9QZVI2XtToBRM
- New York State Department of Environmental Conservation Website on American Ginseng dec.ny.gov/animals/7130.html

Written Publications on Ginseng

- Growing and Marketing Ginseng, Goldenseal and other Woodland Medicinals by W. Scott Persons and Jeanine M Davis
- Farming the Woods by Ken Mudge and Steve Gabriel. It is available from farmingthewoods.com/the-book/
- Plants of Mid-Atlantic Ginseng Habitat by Justin Wexler, American Ginseng Pharm. It is available from lulu.com/us/en/shop/justin-wexler/identifying-ginseng-habitat-the-northeast-and-mid-atlantic/paperback/product-24224437.html

For more information, contact Tracey Testo, CCE Program Coordinator at the Agroforestry Resource Center by phone or email at 518-622-9820 x119, tet35@cornell.edu.